TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Who do people say that I am?” Jesus poses this question to his disciples. It elicits Peter’s acknowledgement that Jesus is the Messiah. For centuries Israel had looked forward to God fulfilling his promise to King David by raising up another great leader to restore Israel’s kingdom. These hopes had become clouded in political and earthly expectations.

Peter’s response, in unambiguous terms, “You are the Christ,” gives Jesus the opportunity to offer a different understanding. Jesus says that he has come to establish not an earthly kingdom in power but rather a spiritual kingdom in weakness. God’s Kingdom will be established through Jesus’ death and Resurrection.

Bishop McKnight's September prayer intention for our Local Church

For a greater appreciation for the gift of friendship; that bonds of friendship may strengthen our resolve to be a people of communion in divisive times.

Our Lady of Sorrows

O sweet Mother! fount of love! Touch my spirit from above, make my heart with thine accord. Make me feel as thou hast felt; make my soul to glow and melt with the love of Christ, my Lord. Holy Mother! pierce me through, in my heart each wound renew of my Savior crucified. Let me share with thee His pain, who for all our sins was slain, who for me in torments died. Let me mingle tears with thee, mourning Him who mourned for me, all the days that I may live. By the Cross with thee to stay, there with thee to weep and pray, is all I ask of thee to give. Virgin of all virgins blest! Listen to my fond request: let me share thy grief divine; Let me, to my latest breath, in my body bear the death of that dying Son of thine. Wounded with His every wound, steep my soul till it hath swooned, in His very Blood away Be to me, O Virgin, nigh, lest in flames I burn and die, in His awful Judgment Day. Christ, when Thou shalt call me hence, by Thy Mother my defense, by Thy Cross my victory; While my body here decays, may my soul Thy goodness praise, safe in paradise with Thee. Amen.
