FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Imagine the story of the prodigal son told today: a daughter goes off to college. Her parents have saved money for tuition ever since she was born. They are so proud. During her first semester, the daughter falls in with the wrong crowd. She starts skipping class and partying. She blows her parents money on partying. By the end of the semester, the daughter falls into a deep depression. She returns home feeling lost and unsure of what to do next. Her parents welcome her back with open arms. The responsibility lecture will come another day. People who act like the prodigal son will no doubt face punishment from society or their families. After squandering money, they may end up without a home and not enough to eat. Punishment inevitably comes with poor choices. But will they be shown mercy too? God always wants to welcome us back when we have gone away from him.

A Prayer for Lent

Please, Lord, guide my mind with your truth.

Strengthen my life by the humble, obedient example of Jesus.

He fulfilled your will by becoming human and suffering with us.

He died so that I would no longer be separated from you.

Help me to feel how close you are and to live in union with you.

Bishop McKnight's
March prayer intention for our Local Church

For the Universal Church; that her mission of salvation may be advanced in every place under the patronage of Saint Joseph.

Lord God of peace, hear our prayer!

We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms. But our efforts have been in vain.

Grant peace in Ukraine; guide our steps and give us the courage to say: "Never again war!"

Instill in our hearts the courage to take concrete steps to achieve peace. Bless the leaders with wisdom, vision and perseverance to build together a world of justice and solidarity, and to break down walls of hostility and division.

To you we entrust all families and pray that they may never yield to discouragement and despair, but become heralds of new hope to one another in this challenging time.

May you continue to inspire all of us to oneness of heart and mind, to work generously for the common good, to respect the dignity of every person and the fundamental rights which have their origin in the image and likeness of God impressed upon every human being. Grant eternal rest to the dead and quick recovery to the wounded.
Through Christ our Lord,
Amen!
