DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Last Sunday, the Church began to celebrate the resurrection of the Lord with a call to bear witness to what God has done in Christ. The New Testament Greek word for “witness” is martyr. As early Christians encountered resistance and even persecution, the word took on new meaning: witness to Christ could cost imprisonment or even life itself. Christ sends forth his disciples, who are taking refuge behind locked doors, to proclaim the Good News despite their fear, assuring them that they will be supported in their witness.

On this day, all who go to confession, receive communion and pray for the Pope’s Intentions may obtain total forgiveness of all sins, meaning that the person would go directly to heaven without suffering in purgatory. Plenary indulgences are granted by the Catholic Church by reciting certain simple prayers.

In 1933, God gave Sister Faustina a striking vision of His Mercy, St. Faustina tells us: "I saw a great light, with God the Father in the midst of it. Between this light and the earth I saw Jesus nailed to the Cross and in such a way that God, wanting to look upon the earth, had to look through Our Lord's wounds and I understood that God blessed the earth for the sake of Jesus."

How to say Chaplet of Divine Mercy

1. Begin with the Sign of the Cross, 1 Our Father, 1 Hail Mary and The Apostles Creed.
2. Then on the Our Father Beads say the following: Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.
3. On the 10 Hail Mary Beads say the following: For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world. (Repeat step 2 and 3 for all five decades).
4. Conclude with (three times): Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the second Sunday of Easter

"As a gift to humanity, which sometimes seems bewildered and overwhelmed by the power of evil, selfishness, and fear, the Risen Lord offers His love that pardons, reconciles, and reopens hearts to love. It is a love that converts hearts and gives peace. How much the world needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy!"
ST. JOHN PAUL II

On this day you may obtain a plenary indulgence* if you complete these four conditions 'in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin':

1. Go to Confession
2. Receive Holy Communion
3. Pray for the pope's intentions
4. Take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy, OR in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Credo, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus

* An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven

LORD, WE BELIEVE IN YOU AND CONFIDENTLY REPEAT TO YOU TODAY: Jesus, I trust in You, have mercy upon us and upon the whole world.
