Bishop McKnight's
September prayer intention for our Local Church

For all who serve in our community as first responders: that God may protect them from all harm, and that we be grateful for the sacrifices they make for the common good.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus uses harsh language in today's Gospel to drive home his point: anyone who claims to be a follower of God must actively reject oppression and commit to bringing about justice with our whole beings. We cannot be halfway Christians. We cannot linger behind in our comfort and security, too timid to work for real change. Jesus calls us to be bold and brave in the battle against evil. The road will be tough—but the reward of resurrection will be worth it.

Charity

-Charity is patient, is kind; charity does not envy, is not pretentious, is not puffed up, is not ambitious, is not self-seeking, is not provoked; thinks no evil, does not rejoice over wickedness, but rejoices with the truth, bears with all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. (1 Cor. 13:4-7).
 -To have Charity is to love God above all things for Himself and be ready to renounce all created things rather than offend Him by serious sin. (Matt. 22:36-40)
