Sunday, Feb 11, 2024 – Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Jesus disciples must have recoiled when they saw the man approaching. Everyone feared the dreaded disease that he was obviously suffering from. Showing signs of leprosy would make one ritually unclean, but the disease was also deadly and thought to be very contagious! So why did Jesus reach out to touch this man? Why didn't he shrink back or turn aside? Because Jesus was not afraid of the disease or the uncleanness as Jesus could not be harmed or made unclean by any infirmity. Jesus could see beyond the disease and reach out to cleanse this beloved child of God. Jesus isn't afraid to reach out to us, either. While we might not be afflicted with leprosy, there is something that can cut us off from God and isolate us from other people: our sin. But on the cross, Jesus took on himself our sins and those of the whole world. Sin has no hold on him, and he does not fear it. Each time we come to him in repentance, seeking healing and restoration, he replies to us as he did to the man with leprosy: "I do will it. Be made clean." COME to Jesus with your sins! He is the pure One who removes all of your impurity. LET him bring restoration and healing!

"Jesus, in my weakness and need, I come to you! Cleanse me and make me whole."
