In doing so, the Diocese is providing special envelopes for this collection that will be included in the July 11, 2025 issue of The Catholic Missourian. Sunday, July 13, 2025 – Daily Reflection: “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”, said the scholar to Jesus. (Luke 10:25-37) In response, Jesus replied, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” Nearly all of us have that one person, in our lives, that is hard to love or be around and all of us have or will experience missed opportunities to treat them or others with acts of kindness and mercy. Did you know that every person who God created has a claim on you and is put before you for a reason? These obstacles are opportunities to be a good Samaritan and to “Go and do likewise” so that you may inherit eternal life.

Jesus, teach me how to love all of my neighbors!

NOTHING ORDINARY ABOUT ORDINARY TIME!

Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the Incarnation, Death on The Cross, Resurrection, Ascension of Jesus Christ, and The Descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ.

Ordinary Time is a time for growth, meditation, and developing one's faith; a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into our minds, hearts, and lives. It's a time to reflect on the life of Christ, His journey, and to devote time to prayer. The final Sunday in Ordinary Time is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Time in prayer is time well spent!

Find more information about Ordinary Time at the United States Conferences of Catholic Bishops (usccb.org)
